EIGHT WHITE SOX PLAYERS ARE INDICTED

will be questioned about conversations between them which she may have overheard. Dr. Freitman is dentist for the White Sox team, and in a statement declared he could produce evidence of an attempt to persuade Weaver to "throw" games.

May Call White Sox.
The White Sox being idle until next Friday, it is expected that some members of the team may be called. "Kid" Gleason, manager, and Ray Schalk, star catcher, having been already summoned. Soon after the series last fall Gleason, it is said, went to St. Louis to investigate reports received by President Charles A. Comiskey of the White Sox, that the games had been "thrown."
